CIAT to host COTAC material on CPD Register

COTAC and CIAT have signed an MoU as organisations which strive to enhance the knowledge, skills and competences of professionals and others in the field of building conservation. CIAT's AT CPD Register is an online directory of courses and learning material to help support the professional development of its members and affiliates.

ASCHB Conference - 1 April 2022

The climate emergency is with us now. It threatens our very existence; and to meet the challenge we shall have to change how we build and operate our buildings. The historic environment is often labelled the villain in the race towards a more sustainable future, but as conservation professionals know, it is arguably our most valuable resource.
